Virtual Family Sunday 1:30 to 3:00 pm	Programme Outline Every Sunday is Family Sunday! Families are invited to spend creative afternoons together. Log onto Zoom from the comfort of home and be guided by MacLaren instructors in a variety of engaging projects using art materials provided. Ideal for children ages 3 to 8 years old. Fee is $5 per child/free for current MacLaren Family membership holders (maximum of four children and two adults).
Sunday, September 13 With Kim Brett	Expressive Landscapes Join us for a fun painting workshop inspired by current exhibition The Uncanny Outdoors. Using cut adhesive templates, families will create interesting organic shapes inspired by the region around them. Create unexpected landscapes by mixing expressive colours—your imagination is the only limit!
Sunday, September 20 With Kim Brett	For the Birds Join us for a very special workshop inspired by Arkive, a digital exhibition by regional Indigenous artist Mary Anne Barkhouse. In this workshop, families will have fun creating their very own birdfeeders out of gelatin and birdseed along with a whimsical journal for children to draw and catalogue local wildlife.
Sunday, September 27 With Heather Riley	Palimpsest Postcards Celebrate Carnegie Days with us! In this special workshop, families will explore visual texture by using drawing and collage to create a multi-layered artwork on cardstock paper—that can be shared with friends and family.
Sunday, October 4 With Heather Riley	Take Flight Let's take your art to new heights! Families will work together to build a unique mobile inspired by the dangling designs of renowned artist Alexander Calder.
Sunday, October 11 With Kim Brett	Autumn Leaves Celebrate the colours of the season! Families will have fun exploring the technique of paper marbling. Once the papers are dry, children can cut different shapes of autumn leaves—perfect for display anywhere you please!
Sunday, October 18 With Heather Riley	Colourful Abstractions Inspired by the exhibition Kazuo Nakamura: Blue Reflections, families will create dynamic paintings exploring shape and colour on two small canvases using complementary and triadic colour schemes. Starting with an introduction to colour theory, families will paint a range of colours on cardstock to then to cut or tear into shapes that will then be glued to canvas.

Sunday, October 25 With Kim Brett	Haunted Horizons Join us as we celebrate the spirit of Halloween! In this workshop, families will use watercolours and oil pastels to paint ominous skies behind spooky shadows and silhouettes.
Sunday, November 1 With Kim Brett	Family Portraits Join us for a workshop inspired by Portraits exhibition. Guided by regional artist Kim Brett, families will create a whimsical self-portrait using layered torn or cut papers and printmaking ink.
Sunday, November 8 With Heather Riley	Recycled Cities In this fun workshop, families will explore the importance of recycling and our impact on the environment—in an artful way! Guided by regional artist Heather Riley, create a paper city from recycled newspapers, coloured papers and items you can find from home. Your imagination is the only limit!
Sunday, November 15 With Heather Riley	Wild Wild Wild! In this clay workshop, create an animal that exists in the wild—or from your imagination! Guided by Heather Riley, families will make their own whimsical sculpture using a variety of clay tools and hand-building techniques.
Sunday, November 25 With Heather Riley	Simply Out of this World! Take your imagination to places out of this world! In this workshop, families will create a space scene in the form of a tunnel book and apply basic perspective techniques to their illustrations.
Sunday, December 6 With Heather Riley	Let It Snow! Using collograph printmaking techniques, families will work collaboratively to create a large-scale print and snowflake mobile where no two snowflakes look alike!
Sunday, December 13 With Kim Brett	Festive Penguin Greetings Just in time for the festive season, families will have fun creating penguin-shaped cards using a variety of mixed-media collage techniques.
Sunday, December 20 With Kim Brett	Yarn Wrapped Christmas Trees Get ready for messy fun! Using white glue and various yarns, families will create festive miniature tree-like decorations just in time for winter break. Make them all look different by creating your own mini-ornaments.
